FRANK SCHWARZ,

'Phone, 374-1.

The Champion Cornetist of the World, Miss Bessle Gilbert can be heard on the phonograph at Humphrey's Wine Parlors, it's Thirteenth street northwest. It is the most wonderful reproduction of the cornet ever heard. The Washburn Sisters' duets, sung by them on the phonograph, sound as natural as the human voice itself. It is the most wonderful reproduction ever heard on a phonograph, and can only be heard at the above place.

LOCAL STOCKS.

Four Surprises on the Washington Exchange...What a Dealer Says. There were nothing less than four surprises on the Washington stock exchange yesterday. The large offering of Columbia National Bank stock was surprise number one. One hundred and fifty shares of this valuable stock were taken in less time than it takes to record it. A round lot of 100 was offered and taken at 181, a drop of 14 from the price paid for 10 shares the previous day, which went at 1824. Fifty shares more were offered at 180 and promptly accepted. The closing bid was at 180 and the lowest offering Surprise number two was the fact that no other transactions were made during or after the regular call. Surwithdrawal of Graphophone stock fro the market. There was a nominal of fering of a few shares at 15 and a nomi-nal bid of 18, but no disposition was shown to trade at any lower price than 15. 'A prediction was made early in the day by a prominent dealer. been a large buyer at the extremely low said. "I predict that to-day is the last pportunity that will be afforded for some time to secure cheap Graphophone stock." Surprise num-ber four was the strength of Electric Light stock. The bid was an advance from 112 to 113, and the offering price moved up two points to 116. It is not often that a guess is so thoroughly verified as was the suggestion that the Electric Light stock recently sold so cheap was borrowed. The happy buyer said to a friend in whose name the stock stood: "I was sorry to see that the stock I bought was yours" "Never fear," was the reply, "I only loaned out the certificate and have already taken steps to have a like number of shares returned to me. It is by such practice that the effort is made to deceive the public into the belief that certain stocks are on the

ENTERTAINMENT AND HOP,

Montefiore Lodge of the B'nai B'rith Celebrates Its Organization, Monteflore Ledge, No. 49, of the b'nai B'rith, celebrated its organization last night with a complimentary entertainment and a hop at Edel's Hall. There was a large attendance, many tersons being present from Baltimore and other neighboring cities who are interested in the welfare of the society. The programme included vocal and instrumental solos, duets, recitations and A Fuld. Mr. Fuld spoke of the re-markable career of the order in the past and predicted a glowing future. After the completion of the programme the hall was cleared and danc ing was indulged in until a late hour.

Assault on a Woman.

A colored woman named Amanda Lucas was badly beated by an unknown woman last night near the corner of Sixth and F streets southwest, about 7 o'clock. She was taken to the Fourth Precinct Station, where her wounds were dressed and she was sent to her home, 1447 First street southwest. She does not know the party who injured her, and claims to have no idea of the cause of the assault.

Wound Up With a Banquet, Last night the colored military and social organizations celebrated the anniversary of the emancipation of slaves in the District by a banquet at the O street armory. H. C. GOSSIP OF THE SPORTS.

The Emancipation Day Ball Game-Prize Fighters in Training.

The Gorhams, the celebrated colored team from New York, made a brave stand against the Washington team yesterday for a few innings, but when the clubs got to work in earnest the local team ran away from the visitors and fluished winner of the game by a score of 15 to 1. The contest was about the same as the other games the local team have played, and was characterized by heavy and timely batting and superb fielding. There were a number of clever plays on each side, the main ones being the work of Bell at short for the visitors and O'Brien's good fielding for the local team.

To day the Washingtons will cross bats with the Philadelphia League team. This will be the strongest club the local team has met, and its work in to day's game should furnish a good index of its true ability. Gleason will pitch for the visitors, and Maloney will e the pitcher for Sullivan's nine.

Jack Hopper, who is matched to meet Billy Myers in a ten-round glove fight on the 28th, is hard at work. His on the 28th, is hard at work. His friends are sanguine that he will stay during the allotted number of rounds, if, indeed, he does not best Myers. Last night they were willing to risk their money, and in almost every case it was taken. Hopper is a clever boxer, and, while he has shown his ability to make a game fight, he is not in the same class with Mycrs. The fight, to speak plainly, is only to give the backers a stake and to promote the interest in Myers' tour through the South.

The match between the Black Pear and Isaac Murphy has been postponed until Tuesday morning. Murphy is not in condition and has a very badly swollen knee, and cannot fight for sev eral days. The Pearl is all right, and is anxiously waiting for the fight. If Murphy is in condition by Tuesday the fight will take place, otherwise it will be postponed indefinitely.

BOYS, TAKE WARNING!

Some of the Queer Results of Over-indulgence in "Smiling."

Some of the delusions of mania potu are queer as well as horrible. They are the result of the excessive and continued use of alcoholic liquors. Dr. A. E. Rodney, who is trying to secure the establishment of an inebriate asylum in Baltimore, while here on a visit, gave

THE CRITIC man a few illustrations that came under his personal observation.

"Mania potu," he said, "is commonly and locally called by several different names. In New York when a man is affected with it they say he has 'rats in his garret,' or that 'Brooklyn boys are after him.' In Chicago they say he is 'bug housey;' in Washington that he has 'snakes,' while in the South he is said to be dancing a 'barley-corn

The Doctor said he once had a pa-tient whose delusion was that he was pursued by a great number of spiders as large as sparrows. They had yellow bodies, bright red heads and long green legs. The man ran rapidly through the streets under the impression that he was pursued by the horrible looking insects until he fell from exhaustion. Then imagining that they were swarm-ing over him he swooned and was removed to the hospital. Another man was followed about by three or four hideous-looking dwarfs, wearing wide sombreros and armed with dangerous looking daggers. entered a police station for protection and was sent to the hospital. Still another victim of the mania was ar-rested while wildly swinging a club about his head trying to protect him-self from a swarm of huge bats with human heads.

"The commonest delusions," said Dr. Rodney, "apply to snakes and hired assassins, who follow their victims stealthily from place to place. my experience alone with the disorder I have recorded nearly 250 distinct delusions in cases of mania potu.
